

On Living Right

I live right in Jesus
because I see beyond today.
I see a legacy in formation:
A legacy of...

Transparent trust in the middle of that which is painfully transparent;

Good choices and seeking forgiveness for the bad ones;

Saying what is right
because Jesus says so
and not because I feel good saying so;

And loving the way I should instead of replacing what I know is best with far less than the best of the worst.
